

i am not interested in weakening the wisconsin no call list, as a matter of fact i would like to see it strengthened. why is it when the people "speak" the god damn politicians never hear? could it possibly be the lobbyists? shove the cash up the god damn financial industry's ass and send them back to the vault.